

STATE SECRET
CHIEF, First Section. YAMAMOTO, Yoshio /Seal/

No. 4 of the 20th part.

Regarding the Reply to GERMANY

Decided by the Liaison Conference between Imperial Headquarters and the Government - 25 July 1942.

As regards Germany's demands in connection with guidance of the war, they shall be disposed of in accordance with the following essential points:

1. Regarding the northern problem.

The Empire shall adhere closely to the established policy toward the north, and shall prevent at all costs provoking a war with the Soviet, by making most prudent preparations.

2. Regarding the Indian Ocean problem.

The Empire, as far as possible, concentrate her utmost endeavors on the operation to bring England to her knees, and shall strive for realization of the war aims common to the three nations.
